

FATHER'S DAY DESTINATIONS

The New Yorker Pizzeria & Bar: For the downtown dad, check out The New Yorker Pizzeria & Bar, set inside the historic Chinese Laundry building in the Gaslamp Quarter. Designed to convey an East Coast neighborhood bar while embracing the sunny San Diego vibes, The New Yorker boasts a full menu of New York style pizzas, buffalo wings, deli sandwiches, burgers, and soups. Order dad the hand-tossed All-In Pizza, topped with mushrooms, pepperoni, sausage, green peppers, and red onions, while he sips from The New Yorker's full draft menu, featuring several California craft favorites!

Osetra: A world-class dad deserves a world-class experience at Osetra, located in San Diego's Gaslamp Quarter, one of southern California's premier destinations for fine dining and nightlife. Combining California modern flavors with high-end meats, Osetra offers an upscale, exclusive dining experience like no other. Take in the elegant ambiance and three-story wine tower while sipping on a number of San Diego's famous craft brews from Osetra's extensive drink menu. Pair with a hand-cut 16oz New York Strip steak served with truffle and herb butter sauce for a meal that dad will never forget!

Barrel Republic: If dad is an aspiring beer aficionado, look no further than Barrel Republic in Carlsbad. Barrel Republic is the mecca for craft beer lovers who want to have that taste of freedom: the freedom to pour! With well over 40 casks to choose from, dads can pour their own glass of brew with the simple swipe of a wristband. Cheers with fellow craft beer enthusiasts all night long in the warm and inviting wood interior while enjoying bites such as the Mini Crabcake Bites, seasoned with old bay, garnished with pickled tomatoes and preserved lemons, and served with a side of tangy lemon aioli.

Et Voilà: Nestled along Adams Avenue in University Heights, Et Voilà is the ideal spot to treat dad to a one-of-a-kind Father's Day favorite. With a cozy interior reminiscent of a traditional French bistro with a stylish twist, Et Voilà promises an extensive menu complete with both traditional and contemporary French dishes. Come in for Et Voilà's Father's Day specials on June 18th for exclusive brunch and dinner items including the Surf & Turf, made with grilled Maine lobster, Aspen Ridge beef tenderloin, risotto cake, and topped with black truffle sauce. Don't forget to order dad a draft from Et Voilà's beer selection, boasting a blend of California crafts and European imports!

La Piñata: Fire dad up with a Father's Day fiesta at La Piñata, Old Town's oldest restaurant! It's no secret that Old Town is home to some of the very best Mexican restaurants in San Diego. Since 1928, folks have been gathering at this cherished landmark for some of the most authentic Mexican food and fun to be found on this side of the border! Join the party with a selection of chilled Mexican cervezas, coupled with hot house specials including the Shrimp Fajitas, made with marinated shrimp sautéed with bell peppers, onions, and savory spices and served with rice, beans, and freshly made tortillas.

Woodstock's Pizza: Make dad the slice of the party at Woodstock's Pizza, located in Pacific Beach! This cozy and casual pizzeria is the perfect place for hot pizza pies and craft brew by the beach. What more could a guy ask for? With a focus on fresh, hand-tossed dough and a unique folded-over crust with sauce inside, Woodstock's is committed to offering the highest quality ingredients in each of their pizzas. Order up one of Woodstock's signature pies, including the Kickin' Carnitas, made with southern chipotle sauce, slow marinated carnitas, crispy bacon, red onions, and fresh cilantro, before letting dad have his pick of the rotating selection of over 18 cold brews on tap to soak up the tasty pizza!
